Dear Dr. McCall:

CollegeView® is an interactive CD-ROM program designed to assist students with the college search process. The KeyFacts® database consists of the fundamental information we collect from 3,550 undergraduate schools throughout the United States and Canada. Your college's information will be included in the database at no cost in CollegeView's Fall 1999 Edition. The KeyFacts database can also be accessed from CollegeView's Web Edition, providing prospective students and their parents with another opportunity to learn about your college.

Programs of Study

Degrees offered by program of study: Please review the list of programs.

- If your school does not offer a program on this list, indicate that you would like it deleted by drawing a line through the name of the program as well as the corresponding degree levels.
- If the program is offered at your school, no changes are necessary.
- If your school offers a program that does not appear on the list, please write it in at the bottom of the list.

Please note the corresponding degrees that can be awarded in each program. An "X" indicates that your school does award this degree in a particular program. The area is simply left blank if that degree is not awarded in a particular program. If the program is listed, but an "X" does not appear next to any degree, this indicates that an award at the certificate level (or other award of less than two years) applies. Please make any necessary corrections by entering or deleting an "X," as appropriate. There are seven levels at which a program of study can be offered which correspond to the columns: a program of less than one year, a program of at least one but less than two years, an associate's degree, a program of more than two but less than four years, a bachelor's degree, a master's degree, and a doctoral degree.

IPEDS-C

NOTE: If your school offers a program of study as preparation for medical school, we suggest that you add "pre-medical" to the list of majors. Likewise, you may want to include pre-dentistry, pre-law, pre-pharmacy, pre-vet, and pre-theological/ministerial.
