Michigan Christian is ...

INVOLVING yourself in intramural sports with most of your friends.

GATHERING with faculty and friends for daily chapel.

PARTICIPATING in an informal classroom discussion with a visiting judge or doctor.

BUILDING a snowman.

ROOTING for the conference champion Warriors and feeling good to be Number One.

EARNING an Associate of Arts degree, an Associate of Science degree, or a Junior College Certificate.

STUDYING with teachers who will know your name.

CHOOSING a course of study from offerings in Art, Bible, Biology, Business, Chemistry, English, History, Languages, Mathematics, Music, Physical Education, Political Science, Psychology, Speech, Secretarial Science, and Sociology.

AGREEING to accept a financial aid package (scholarship, grant, low-interest loan, work-study) which we cheerfully put together so that you claim the benefits of Christian education.

SELECTING a college close enough to permit visits home (especially on holidays) and yet far enough away to develop your independence.

PLAYING Snoopy in "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown."

FORMING close, life-long friendships . . . and perhaps finding a wife or a husband.

ACCEPTING a tuition scholarship of up to $800 per year as a non-Michigan resident, according to your need.

BREAKFASTING in the President's home with him and other members of his class.

RECEIVING a tuition grant of up to $800, which you don't have to repay (probably $1200 in '73), from the State of Michigan, as a Michigan resident.

STROLLING by our Oriental garden and lovely lakes (bring your ice skates).

ANTICIPATING an Accounting class taught by a former FBI agent.

ELECTING to study at a place where you will be encouraged to do right.

GRADUATING in a unique open-air setting under the pines.

TRANSFERRING to senior colleges which will compete for your application.
