

Learning Environment

CAMPUS OF UNUSUAL BEAUTY. Ten major buildings situated around two campus lakes set the MCC campus apart as one of the most scenic college campuses in the country. Acres of wooded, rolling hills provide private study areas for those who enjoy working while surrounded by the beauties of nature.

ON CAMPUS LIVING. Approximately 80% of the MCC student body, which is represented by several states and foreign countries, live in one of the college residence halls. The Alma Gatewood Residence Hall for women is built in a suite style, with two rooms adjoining a private bath. One suite-style hall plus the Campus Center and Barbier Residence Hall house men students. Living on campus in itself becomes a very special learning experience.

SUBURBAN COMMUNITY. Rochester, a rustic community in greater Detroit, gives you the cultural, educational, and entertainment advantages of one of the nation's largest metropolitan areas, while enjoying the peaceful privileges of suburban living.

HOMETOWN SETTING. Rochester and Rochester Hills, a thriving community of 50,000, boasts the internationally acclaimed Meadowbrook Theatre and Music Festival. In addition to its famous cider mills and unique shops, the area now serves as home to three enclosed shopping malls, four shopping centers, twelve indoor theaters, and over thirty restaurants. Seventeen miles from campus brings you to eight more shopping malls and over fifty more theaters. Job opportunities are usually readily available to those who desire off-campus employment.

WITHIN AN HOUR'S DRIVE. Metropolitan Detroit, with the nation's sixth largest city as its center, offers such places as Greenfield Village, the Henry Ford Museum, the Institute of Arts, the Detroit Science Center, Fisher Theatre, the Detroit Zoo, and the dramatic Renaissance Center. Sports enthusiasts can witness pro-baseball at Tiger Stadium or Lions football and Pistons basketball at the 80,000 seat Pontiac Silverdome. Golf courses, recreation centers, parks, and winter sports facilities are within reasonable distance for special outings.
