"Michigan Christian College was precisely what I needed when I left high school. It provided challenging curriculum, competent instructors, and a nurturing environment. MCC was unquestionably the vitally important launching pad for my life."

"My favorite place at Michigan Christian College was the cafeteria. At the big school I attended, we never knew if we would even see a friend all day. But at MCC we knew that every day we would see everyone sometime in the cafeteria."

"I wouldn't trade my experience at Michigan Christian College for a million dollars! The friends I made there are lifelong, even if I don't see them often. I now have a son attending MCC and am so proud of his decision to go there. Of course, he loves it too! I can't think of a better family tradition."

"The turning point in my life came at Michigan Christian College when I found self-confidence, and much of that happened because of opportunities for involvement at MCC."

"If someone were to ask me if there was a particular time in my life I could live over again, it would be my years at Michigan Christian College. It doesn't get much better. I have very fond memories of my college days at MCC."

"During the summer before I came to Michigan Christian College, I was planning to go to a large community college. Then I met Autumn at church camp. I changed my mind and was able to get a nice scholarship."

"The small college atmosphere of MCC provided several avenues for cultivating leadership skills. Translating such experiences into career practice was a natural."

"Michigan Christian College was the best decision that I ever made. I learned how to think for myself. If it wasn't for MCC, I probably wouldn't be a Christian, have a Christian husband, or have the ability to attain a master's degree."
